Letter from Fauquier

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
MARSHALL, June 21.—The farmers say the constant showers of the present month favor the growing crops—that of wheat which was left from the late fall storm, they are now harvesting—something unusual, since this year harvest has begun two weeks earlier than usual. There will be a pretty fair yield.
Once more our country has put on its wonted lovely appearance and the neighborhood is filling up with visitors and strangers. At the Washington home (Waveland) is Misses Willis and Ambler, of Charlottesville, Va.; at Mrs. Judge Meade's, Mrs. Wright, of Chicago; at Misses Allen's, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton, of Florida.
The event of the present week in our midst has been the annual commencement day of Bethel academy. As usual there were assembled throngs of happy, merry-hearted young people; pretty country maidens, with patrons of this popular institution. Each group that came brought with them their baskets of refreshments and as usual on such occasions in this part of Virginia, a hospitable and sumptuous hospitality was dispensed to everybody. There was no visible proof of King Alcohol's presence and the occasion was enlivened by "concord of sweet sounds" dispensed by the band of music.

On Tuesday, the 24th inst., there will be a basket picnic at Belmont Classical School. Among other improvements in behalf of the educationists of Fauquier county, tasteful and well constructed public school buildings may be noticed in all directions. The near completion of the courthouse at Warrenton is another improvement, and now once more may be heard the familiar peals of the town clock and bell that have been silent since the fire.
The traveler in the direction from Marshall cannot fail to notice signs of the great destruction of the crops and of forest and fruit trees during the late cyclone. Mr. Brad Beverly suffered heavily.
In conclusion, a word or so as to "A correction," and "that sermon," of which the editor of the Southern Churchman adds: "The subject will be considered closed in these columns." Who shall decide when persons as well as doctors disagree? We venture to recall the words of the Lord Jesus Christ to any who believe annihilation of the wicked to be their end. "And fear not them which kill the body but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.—St. Matthew, x-28.

An Experience with Cannibals
A. E. Rixham, of Victoria, B. C., had a remarkable experience with the Nahwit Indians a few weeks ago. "During a hunting trip in British Columbia," he said, "we accidentally ran across a tribe of the Nahwit Indians in the midst of a cannibal feast. While cannibalism is prohibited by the Dominion government, so little pains is taken to carry out this law that the savages still follow their old customs. When we came upon the Indians they were having a wild time. In the centre was an immense log fire and about the blaze were some half-bred savages dressed and painted in the brightest colors. There were several naked dancers and about a dozen were beating accompaniments to their weird songs. Every little while the fire would flare up and fresh meat would be thrown upon the logs. Three or four bodies were cooked and eaten while we were there and I was afraid that there was not enough to go round and that some of us would be chosen, but they seldom kill strangers. These Indians are continually fighting among themselves and there are always three or four bodies ready for the feast. When we were noticed one of the brave pointed to us and denounced the government for forbidding them from eating their dead. As he talked of the bad treatment shown the Indians, the savages became excited and more than once we came near being thrown on the burning logs. Two of the braves made a dash for us, but the old chiefs restrained them from violence. All night long the Indians kept up their orgies and when morning came we got out with haste."

Having purchased the above-named stock and Marble Works, I will in the future conduct the business heretofore conducted by C. L. Neale & Son at the stand for many years occupied by them. All dealings with reference to the business of the works must be had with me personally.
M. B. HARLOW.

MEDICINAL

Wake Up.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.
